With which is incornorated THE CHINA DIRECTORY. This is the TRIRTY-FIRST ANNUAL ISSUE. and will be found, as usual, to show an advance on preceding years both in fullness and accuracy of information.

The DIRECTORY covers the whole of the ports and cities of the Far East, from Penang to Vladivostock, in which Europeans reside. Not only is the Directory as full and complete in each case as it can be made, but each Calony Port, or Settlement is preferred by a DESCRIP TION, carefully revised each year, some of which will serve as accurate Guides for the Tourist. giving every detail in connection with the places, their History, Topography, &c., &c. The Information afforded in these Descriptions alone would suffice to fill an ordinary volume, consisting of over Eighty highly interesting articles, packed with facts concisely set out, and containing statistics of the TRADE of each Country and Port.

The work contains Directories and Descripions of Tainanfu Peking' Kinkiang Hankew Newchwang Lakow Whohang Port Arthur: Swatow Ichang Canton Ti- itsin Changking Whampon Chefoe Ningpo Kowloon Wei Hai Wei Wanchow Lappa Shangkai Foodbow Hoibo₩ Chinkiang Pakhoi Amoy Nanking Taniani Lungohow -Keelung Mongiszu

HONGRONG, FEBRUARY 22nd, 1893-

The British Minister has forbidden Municipal Loans in Tientsin, without alleging New York ..., Mr. T. B. Browne, 353-5; Canal St any ground for so sir gular an action. The Consul, however, on whose initiative the at the recent meeting of landrenters, and head of a self-governing community, in going out of his way to "blow upon" having been made against the landrenters they might, one would think, very well the left to deal with their own funds in might repudiate; and as the landrenters are not all British, the defaulters could not illustrated this by the extreme case of Peruvian subject being hailed before Peruvian Consul. If this be the last word the British Minister and Consul have to say the British Settlement of Tientsin, it seems to have been promptly disposed of by a landrenter present, who explained to the Consul that he had wholly misaiprohenled the case The whole land of the concession being leased by the Imperial Chinese Government sublets it to the occupants of all na tionalities, on its own conditions. These a set of Eund Regulations, and General Regulations given under the hand and seal of H.M. Minister in Peking. These conditions of lease and Land and Gono. ral Regulations provide for the self-government of the settlement in every respect Aliene, such as the imaginary Peruvian, ar with the officially certified consent of their provided for non-compliance with the Regnlations is that H.B.M. Consul or any one 8.50 authorised by him shall re-enter and repossess the land of any such delinquent alien.

20.00 of the Tientsin Consul seem slightly artificial. He might have put his case against the landrenters very much stronger by suggesting a general repudiation, which might functions, neglecting to collect revenue, and obligations. Such a contingency is of course conceivable in any corporate body, but the investing public, about whom so much gratuitous solicitude is shown, do not fear sumunicipal corporations, and are never scared by such far-fetched hypotheses. We observe the Tientsin Council_ar

We should be surprised, however, if H.M. Minister avails himself of the argument for despitic action which the zealous Consul used in his name. Land and General Regulations of Tieutsin which constitute the charter of the settle ment, and are: the basis of all land and the whole of the goods in the stores are in influence. house contracts, are very clearly and formally promulgated by the British Go vernment. But a reservation is made for sufferer, the total insurance of merchandise only emergencies—a very wise thing in the circumstances seeing that the unforescenthis power the Consul seems to claim for the Minister the right to interfere in every detail of the Municipal administration. The Tea trade was most satisfactory for the producers. Although the quantity sold was pole. 10,000 less than in 1891, prices paid averaged $4 per picul higher, this result being partly attributable to the crop yielding a larger proportion of the batter grades of tea th n in the provious season.

The Expert of Rice was only slightly over half the quantity experted in 1891; but the harvest was a very good one in every respect, and with favourable conditions in the consuming markets a large export would result. The business in Copper has again increased, whilst the export of Camphor shows a falling off in quantity of fully 35 per cent. Prices for this commodity have displayed violent fluctuations, and great complaints are being made at the large percentage of water in the parcels offered

The matting trade has nearly doubled, while the bustness in Miscellancous articles generally has been maintained in a parity with the previous year.

THE END OF THE POLITICAL

CRISIS IN JAPAN. -

The political crisis is at an ond. It has often been said of Japan that the one stable point in all changes of the pist twenty-five years, the one rock on which alone are based any potentialities of sound administration, is the Throne. It may be that in this pregnant palators who, themselves the latest outcome o these large changes, are, suffering their usefu capacity to be frittered away in a patty squabble instead of seeking to promote the striking progress that gave them birth. may be that the intention of the words does not go beyond recalling to the minds of the Opposition the greatness of the era in which they have had the good fortune to be born, and altogether insufficient to allow of the price being the consequent duty of magnanimity that devolves on them. Be that as it may, however he clause forms a worthy preface to what follows. For we next find the Diet remind ed of the purposes of its own existence and of the part it has to play in the national polity after which His Majesty proceeds to inculout the necessity of circumspection and moderation in these initiatory stages of representative in stitutions. Then follows a singularly emphatic and directly phrased condemnation of the small strifes and wasted opportunities that disfigure the relations of the Legislature and the Administration and impede the progress of the empire. This significant part of the Rescript will have great affect. It is a clear rebake to the Opposition, and will be thus interpreted by the nation: while His Majesty's appeal to his Ministers to restore order, and to the Representatives to appreciate his auxiety, is sure to command implicit compliance. Coming to the actual subject of conflict between the Opposition and the Cabinet, the Emperor gives his dedision distinctly in favour of the latter. There must be no dispute, His Majesty declares, about the items falling under the 67th Article of the Constitution. They are explicitly protected against interference. Hongkong, 19th February, 1893. EATING'S COUGH LOZENGES."

KEATING'S COUGH LOZENGES." "A SIMPLE PACTABOUT" KEATING'S COUGH OZENGES. Ask throughout the world, in any country that can be named, you will find them largely sold. There is absolutely no remedy that is so speedy in giving relief, so certain to cure, and yet the most delicate can take them.

UNRIVALLED REMEDY. UNRIVALLED REMEDY. UNRIVALLED REMEDY. "91. Commercial Road, Packham, July 13. "Dear Sir -- I am a boor hand at expressing my feelings, but I should like to thank you. Your locough: Since I had the operation of Trachectomy (the same as the late Emperor of Gormany, and unlike him, thank God, I am still alive) performed at St. Burthelemew's Hospital, no one could possibly have had a more violent cough; it was so bail at times that it quite exhausted me. The macus, which was very copious and hard, has been softened, and I have been able to get rid of it without difficulty.—I am, sir, yours truly, J. HILL...

MEDICAL NOTE. The above speaks for itself. From strict inquiry it appears that the benefit from using Kenting's Cough Lozenges is understated. The operation was a specially severe one, and was performed by the specialist, Dr. H. T. Butlin, of St. Bartholomew's (Iospital. Since the operation the only means of relief is the use of these Lozenges. So successful are they that one affords immediate benefit; although from the nature of the base the throat irritation i UNRIVALLED TESTIMONY Under date Sopt. 8th, 1891, Mr. Hill again writes Tshould long since have been dead, but for your Lozonges—they are worth their weight in gold. I will gladly see and tell anyone what a splendid cough emedy they are. Keating's Cough Losenges, the unrivalled remens for COUGHS, 110 ARSENESS, and THROATTROU-LES, are sold in Bottles by all Chemists.

NOW ON SALE. IMPERIAL QUARTO. INULISH AND CHINESE DICTIONARY. WITH THE PUNTI AND MANUARIN

PRONUNCIATION. An Anglo-Chinese Dictionary, published at the Feilung. British str., 752, Ballard, Dec. 25, Daily Press Office, Hongkong. For comprehensiveness and practical service | Fn Ping, British str., 647, Walts, Jin. 17, this Work stands unrivalled. All the new ! words which the Chinese have of latey ears been Fungsbun, Chine to str., 863, Wallace, Feb. 16, compelled to coin to express the numerous objests in machinery, photography, telegraphy, ashun, Chinese str., 1504, Lancester, Feb. 16, and in science generally, which the rapid advance of foreign relations has imposed upon them, are G. H. Warpans, British bark, 533, Christensen, here given in extense. Each and every word is fully illustrated and explained, forming exercises | Hae-un, Chinese str., 869, Andrew, Jan. 23, for students of a most instructive nature. Both the Court and Punti pronunciations are given Haechan". Chinese str., 3:10, Frigast, Jan. 20, the accents being carefully marked on the best principle hitherto attained. The typography Hae-shin, Chinese str., 763, Wells, Jan. 14, displays the success of an attempt to make the Chinese and English type correspond in the size | Haeting, Chinese str., 1,099, Paramore, Feb. 16, of body, thereby effecting a vast economy of space, achieving a clearness not previously lininan, German str., 741, Samuelsen, Feb. 16, attained, and dispensing with those vast margins torized Chinese publications. To illustrate the vast scope of the work the following facts are submitted for consideration:-Chalmers' Vocabulary contains about 16,000 Chinese characters, and Medhurst's English and Chinese Dictionary about 100,000, whilst student of this difficult language absolutely rehave one general meaning. Of these examples this work contains more than five times as many as any other Dictionary hitherte pub-

For practical purposes the arrangement of the work is so complete, that a reference to its pages enables a person who understands English to communicate effectively with nativos who understand nothing but Chinese. In this respect the work will be found indispensable to all Europeans residing in China, and to the natives themselves it explains subjects fully with which very few indeed of them are perfectly acquainted. To parties resident in England and interested in China it cannot but be invaluable occasion-

It comprises upwards of two thousand large 4 Vols. IMPERIAL QUARTO, Price. $20. A Large REDUCTION in PRICE is made to Purchasers of SIX or more Copies.
